BALANCE £230 due by MONDAY 10th JULY 2017

The camp will run over 3 1/2 days. Your stable will be available from 12 noon onwards. You will be able to get yourself and your horse settled, and if you wish, take advantage and enjoy the Bishop Burton Estate farm ride. (there are no jumps en-route)

There are 4 options this year:

DRESSAGE ONLY - 2 lessons per day with choice of trainer, plus a demo test riding session

DRESSAGE & SJ ONLY - 2 lessons per day.

XC & SJ ONLY - 2 lessons per day.

DRESSAGE/SJ/XC - 2 lessons per day.

for the above option you will be with the same trainer throughout camp.

Separate individual lessons can be arranged by swapping a jump lesson

YOUR STABLE will have 2 bales of shavings in when you arrive. If you would like more you are welcome to bring your own or you can buy more on site. Extras can be ordered on the form below in 'EXTRAS'

HAYLAGE is included - 2 nets per horse per day. If your horse requires more, then you are welcome to bring your own. Unfortunately we do not provide HAY so again if you feed hay you will need to bring your own.

Food is provided by the college with continental breakfast, lunch, which will be jkt potato with a choice of fillings, and an evening meal served in the 'Paddocks' restaurant.

Breakfast and lunch will be served in 'Canterers' opposite BBA arena

You are welcome to bring your own 'liquid refreshment' but we are not allowed to consume this in the paddocks restaurant. There is a fully licenced bar in the restaurant and will be open for our use.

If the weather is kind...fingers crossed, then we will BBQ one evening on the 'lawn'

There is a booking form for GUESTS' meals

The college have very good toilet and shower facilities close to the car/lorry park.

THERE WILL BE DEMOS AND ENTERTAINMENT ON AN EVENING DURING CAMP.
