This event is open to everyone and is designed to give combinations the experience of jumping a fun and interesting course. The Showing classes are designed to encourage people new to showing to have a go and those looking for qualifiers for Championship Shows to ride for their tickets.

A very friendly, professional team runs this event and they will be happy to advise or help if need be. Driving through the Golden Gates makes the day special before you start competing!

The aims of the events are big smiles and happy equines! You do not need to be a member of any society or pony club to enter and compete. A wide variety of in hand and ridden classes – something for everyone

Classes Ridden £10 In-hand £8 First aid £3 per rider/handler Rosettes to 6th Place

Entries for all classes www.horsevents.co.uk or at the show on the day

There will be a points system run over all the shows at Abbey Farm and Chatsworth and the Champions in each section will be awarded at the last show of the season. There will be an over all champion for Senior, Junior and In-hand showing presented at the September Finals
